

Violence is one the central barrier impeding the path to equal life chances and healthy lives for our children. Violence alludes to an all too common life trajectory of many children of color and/or impoverished children whose life chances are jeopardized by economic, health and educational disadvantages.

You're invited to join us!
The Congressional Black Caucus Foundation in collaboration with the Prevention Institute and UNITY presents...

"Redirecting the Prison Pipeline"

Saturday, September 27, 2008

1:00pm-3:00pm

Walter E. Washington Convention Center

Room 104 A

Washington, DC

Panelists/Program Guests

Rep. Donna M. Christensen
U.S. House of Representatives (VI)

Dr. Elsie Scott, Ph.D.
President/CEO,
Congressional Black Caucus Foundation

Dr. Deborah Prothrow-Stith
Harvard School of Public Health
Moderator

Rep. Robert "Bobby" Scott
U.S. House of Representatives (VA-3)

Ms. Natoya J. Walker
Deputy Chief of Operations
Office of the Mayor- Cleveland, OH

Mr. Larry Cohen
Executive Director, PI

Dr. Natacha Blain,
Cradle to Prison® Pipeline Campaign
Children's Defense Fund